The Trust can confirm that the most expensive restaurant bill claimed on expenses during 2013/14 and 2014/15 was for £50.10 and was on 7th November 2014. The restaurant was Café Rouge in Euston and was for 5 people (all staff members who were attending an all-day meeting), and was claimed by the Deputy Chief Executive / Director of Finance. The total amount claimed is comparable with the amount that could be claimed by each individual for subsistence as per Trust Policy.
